

CROALBEAT

A LOOK AT LOCAL MUSIC NEWS

Run for the hills! Flee! Bring out the bomb shelters! Why?..... KYTE are reforming after many months of peace and tranquility. Ah well, I suppose it had to happen. Paul Anderson seems to have now recovered from his bike accident and so we wait with baited breath. Should be interesting.....

NOT A MEMBER OF KYTE ↑ A MEMBER OF KYTE ↑

Paul Clavell (ex-Mean St) is forming his own band, possibly with ex-Poison vocalist Elaine Barry.

TICKLED PINK are going into the recording studios to make a demo tape which will feature "Stroll On", "Mr. Pink Policeman" and their infamous version of "The Pink Panther Theme". It will be aimed at a fun rock/pop market.

Members of THE URGE have spent about £80 each on making a demo tape at Harfield Studios using H W. Audio equipment.

FUTURE have split. Two members have left while the other half are starting up another band.

Marc McGovern, Ste Fielding and George someone-or-other have turned into TSYN and are looking for a bassist.

Roger has left Jamm after a "horrible summer". However the Mosses will continue to run their invaluable service as usual.

THE WIZARDS OF ZIND were supposed to play the Gaiety in October but a breakdown in communications led to The Out and Peppermint Dream playing instead. W of Z will now be playing on 4th November.

Ian (ex-TV DINNERS voc) has joined THE AUTOZE.

STORMCHILD and drummer Chris Mitchell have parted company. Reg Norris (ex-Poseidon, Medusa) has joined them on guitar, leaving Ian Bridge and Neil McCurley as the only two original members remaining. Interested drummers should apply by the phone nos. on page 27.

CAPSULE ELECTRIC have released a cassette entitled "Tomorrow's Secrets" on their Living Room Theatre label. The tape features the original members Ant Rawton and Gary Scowcroft and is available from E.P. Lees and HMV. £1.20.

If you're wondering what happened to WHITEFIRE, they turned into ROADRUNNER about four months ago and have played Band on the Wall and Derby Hall, Bury amongst other places.

ARTZONE have turned into CHIEF CITY and in true SUMA SUMA style, have plastered their posters all over town.

SCREAM have turned into DREAM SURGEONS having added ex-Pencil bossist, Andy Scoble.

MENDALLA have split before they really got going although the keyboardist is trying to get a band together again.

CYMBALINE seem to have a curious advertising campaign. Not only do we find their little yellow stickers all over Horwich Loco Works, but they also seem to have scrawled their name in half the men's toilets in Bolton's pubs.

After the release of his last book, "The Man Behind The Sneer", RIVINGTON SPYKE is set to publish yet another, this time called "Oh, to be a Giro!". News of this, his radio and television programmes and rise to stardom in general, can be found on page 6.